Resolution 19-02 Budget Transfer for the new Town website

Transferring $6,000 from Election expense item to the Website expense item.

Manager Campbell stated DOJ published a new mandate that all websites in the public eye, need to be ADA compliant. A format process will be re-aligning our website to be consistent with the DOJ guidelines.

Govoffice is our current vendor, we are moving to Civic Plus. The web site will have a new layout. It will take 6-9 months to complete.

Attorney Mora stated throughout the County, especially in the States of New York and Florida, this has become a cottage industry for litigation.

This is a risk management decision. This is an emerging area in the law.

Motion to Approve: Councilmember Troup

Second: Councilmember Roberts

Motion passed unanimously

- Mayor/Council/Attorney/Manager/Clerk Comments:

Mayor Dudley stated Manager Campbell and herself attended a Forward Pinellas Workshop, and a Mayors' Council meeting at St. Pete Collaborative Labs.

In the Florida League of Cities QC quarterly publication, Kenneth City was showcased.

Mayor Dudley stated the Newsletter was distributed and was very well written. Mayor Dudley would like to extend our mailing list.

- Chief Riley made a presentation on Code Enforcement. Officer Beltran is a full-time officer assigned to Community Compliance.

1st approach educational phase, bring awareness of the new ordinances, what they need to do to get into compliance.

There will be flyers and informational brochures being distributed, as needed.

There will also be information distributed to Commercial properties, including the business watch program. The Police Department has a list of all the business' in the Town and their contact information.

There will be an enforcement phase in 20-25 days from now, which will include a courtesy notice, and copy of ordinance, then the next step would be a citation.

Manager Campbell stated the Town has always embraced recreational vehicles, however many people over the years have been keeping their vehicles in the same place, in addition to increasing the number of vehicles they have on their property. They need to realize there are going to need to be changes. If the residence refuses to comply there will be fines and possible court costs.
